Frequently Asked Questions

What is a cue card in IELTS?

A cue card in the IELTS Speaking test is a task card consisting of a topic and a set of 4 questions. There are also some instructions given on the card to guide you on how to answer those questions.

How do I get cue card ideas?

You'll be given 01 minute to think about the topic and generate ideas. Use the paper and a pencil to note down every thought that comes to your mind. List them in the form of points against every question given on the card.

How do you end a cue card?

It'll be the examiner who will stop you at the end of two minutes. Try to speak unceasingly until he or she declares an end to the cue card.

How can I improve my scores in IELTS speaking part 2?

Start off with a measured pace, not too fast and not too slow. Learn some opening sentences that will get you off to a great start with Part 2 of your IELTS Speaking exam. Finally, don't forget to use contractions to get a better score for your pronunciation.
